From the President

It's that time again already

Hi all here we are in June already and almost half the year gone. We have enjoyed some fantastic weather this last month, perfect for Pétanque but now the winter woollies are all coming out.

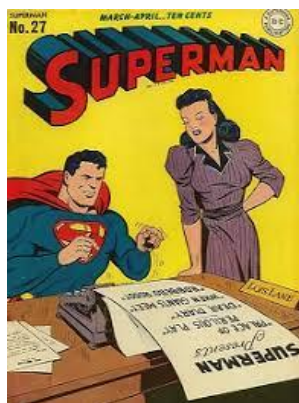

June also heralds the approach of our A.G.M. and all the necessary paperwork will be coming out to you very soon. Get your entries in folks it's your chance to get rid of that annoying president you have. We will also be finishing up this year's Presidents Cup.

Thank you to all who have so keenly participated. It has once again been a fantastic competition.

Sat 3rd June is the Guy Soubeyran Trophy, our club singles held in recognition of all the time and effort Guy has so generously put into our club. His love for the game and his enthusiasm has inspired new and old players alike Be there for a great afternoon of Pétanque and social get together

See you on the piste

Val

Hot off the Press

Subiaco Pétanque club members continued with social play on Saturday April 30 in perfect conditions.

Next Saturday, May 06, competitive play continues with another round of the President's Cup.

There is also social play every Wednesday. Visitors are welcome on Saturdays and Wednesdays. Consult our website or Facebook pages for details.

The last of the veteran's tournaments for the year, Triples, was played on Sunday May 07 at Subiaco Pétanque Club.

Congratulations to Anton Wieland of Subiaco Pétanque Club who has won the State veterans title for men in 2023. Subiaco players Claude Minuta, Ian Russell-Brown and Nick Siciliano were equal second place getters. Associate member Sue Dauth won the women's title with Jenny Silva a close second.

The President's Cup was abandoned on Saturday due to low numbers despite a fine but cool afternoon following a cold and wet morning.

The club will have social play next Saturday May 13.

There is also social play every Wednesday. Visitors are welcome on Saturdays and Wednesdays. Consult our website or Facebook pages for details.

Pétanque, like most sports, is a game requiring skill, tactics, attention to detail, and team play. Observations are also made with respect to style, headwear, and who is playing with who. And so it was at Subiaco Pétanque club social play on Saturday May 13. However, it seems that these details were more in reference to the recent coronation and the players of that event.

Next Saturday, May 20, competitive play continues with another round of the President's Cup.

There is also social play every Wednesday. Visitors are welcome on Saturdays and Wednesdays. Consult our website or Facebook pages for details.

On a perfect afternoon last Saturday May 20, twenty-four members participated in another round of the President's Cup. Winners were in order of merit, Joan Daniels, John Beamish, Ravin Parianen, Suren Appadoo, new member Al McDonnell, visitor Amanda and George Savage.

The club will have social play next Saturday May 27.
